CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

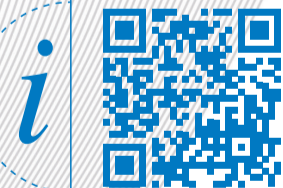

For the international summer school
Digital Creativity in Educational and Artistic Activity Training (Digit-CrEAAT)

22
june

july 2020

The objective of the Digit-CrEAAT Summer school is to question the impact of digital tools on creation and training in and through the arts (visual arts, music, dance, design, theatre, cinema, etc).

Professional and researchers in the sciences, humanities and social and artistic fields will provide insights into the current state of work. This summer school is open to all master's or PhD students of all academic disciplines who are interested in the issues raised by the use of digital tools in training and creation.
